The Poisons
Act.1919.

Since the poisons have already been taken possession of by Government, it would be for Government to dispose of them and pay the sale proceeds to Mr. Vrajlal. The District Magistrate reports that no licensee is forthcoming to purchase them. However these poisons may be put to sale by public auction inviting the licensees to offer bids. If no bids are offered Government may consider the feasibility of buying these poisons for use by Hospitals etc., under the Health Department in which case the market price of the stock so bought should be paid to Mr. Vrajlal.
